

On July 5, 1971, President Richard Nixon formally certified the 26th Amendment. This Amendment to the U.S. Constitution granted 18-year-olds the right to vote. Do you agree or disagree with this law? Should the age to vote be younger or older than 18 years? Explain the reasons for your argument.